Completely Confused

The new registration procedures which became effective this semester are designed to curtail the uncertainty and confusion of past years. All registration activities have been consolidated into one building, the gymnasium. This will reduce the problem of new and old students having to traipse all over the campus for signatures and advice.

7300 Students Register Under Revised Plan

By KATHY SHAFFER, Gater Staff Reporter

Over 7300 regular and limited students will descend upon San Francisco State College Thursday, Friday and Saturday to enroll under the newly revised registration program. For the first time in many years, registration will be consolidated in one building, the gym. All students are to use the following procedure in registering.

Students will be required to pick up their class cards from the representatives of the various divisions as they register. These class cards will be filled out by the students as they enroll in their classes and turned in with their official registration booklets.

CLASS CARDS NECESSARY

Every student must obtain a class card for each course in which he enrolls, for instructors will admit only students whose cards they have.

If a student wishes to change a class after registration he must again obtain a class card before he will be admitted.

CHANGE PROCEDURE

All students are reminded that if after they finish regular registration it is necessary to make any change, they must be sure and file revised registration cards in the registrar's office.

Regular and limited students will register at different times. Registration for regular students will take place on February 10 and 11 from 7:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. Limited students will register February 10 and 11 from 2:30 to 8:30 p. m. and on February 12 from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Dean Johnson urges that all students become familiar with the information in the time schedule and college catalogue. Detailed instructions concerning registration procedure will be given students as they enter the gym.

Registration Dance Will Be Saturday Night

Students, tired and confused from battling through registration, will have a chance to relax at the only admission-free dance of the semester Saturday, Feb. 12.

Dancing from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m. in the women's gym, couples will swing and sway to the music of Bob Sumners and his band.

The dance, traditional at S. F. State, is chairmaned by Bob Stevens and is sponsored by the Associated Students.

Students Thanked for Work on Registration

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those students who generously gave up their time to assist on Registration and Orientation.

Special thanks are due to Fred Hummel, general chairman, and to Angelo DeBello, in charge of general registration.

It is the work and co-operation of students such as those who donated their efforts to this program that has made, and will continue to make, registration and orientation a success.

DEAN ALAN JOHNSON,
DEAN DOROTHY E. WELLS,
Associate Deans of Students.

Students Earn Activity Awards

Sharen McCulley and Cal Pamela were chosen as the "Most Valuable Members of the Activities Committee" at the Activities Award banquet, January 15. Mrs. Erna Lehan, manager of the Student Union, accepted a trophy on behalf of the Cafeteria staff for the "Business Organization that has done the most for the Associated Students."

Certificates of merit were given to all committee members. Presentation of awards

Resignations Cause Special Major Election

Resulting from the recent resignations of Alice Pappas and Karl Knuth, a special election will be held February 24 and 25, to fill the student body offices of vice president and activities commissioner.

Petitions will be available in the Business Office, Monday, February 14, for those students wishing to run for the vacated positions. Petitions must be signed by at least 30 members of the ASSFSC and returned by 12 noon Friday, Februay 18.

Candidates for the office of vice president must have completed 60 units by the end of the semester following the election, while candidates for the office of activities commissioner must have completed 45 units.

All candidates must be members of the ASSFSC and have at least a 1.0 grade average. They should also be thoroughly familiar with the ASSFSC Constitution and By-Laws.

A meeting of all candidates

Official Notice

All veterans must see military affairs secretary, Mrs. Kay Krause, in the registration line to be eligible for the Korean Bill (Public Law 550).

Draft-deferred students should check during the last week in February, in Ad. 166, to have a letter sent to their draft boards informing them of their attendance in college for the Spring semester.

Student Polio Victim Needs Two Rides Daily

A re-entering student, forced out of college last semester because of a polio attack, needs two rides daily.

The first ride would be from the campus to Mission and Otis at 12:30 p. m.

The second ride would be from Mission and Otis to 19th avenue and Ortega at 4 p. m.

Any person or persons who can provide the transportation is urged to contact Frankie Webb, 1862 23rd avenue, San Francisco, or to call OV 1-4684.

LaLanne Emcees Soph Sport Show

By BOOTS WILLSON

Sponsoring its second major activity of the year, the Sophomore class will present something "different" in its Sport Show, February 17, at 8 p. m. in the men's gym.

Jack LaLanne, television star and first man to swim the Golden Gate under water, will emcee the show. LaLanne is a former contender for the Mr. America title and has recently been appearing on television in a program dedicated to body building.

HOLT VS. NORTHRUP

Featured in the program will be two top wrestling matches between some of America's greatest amateur wrestling stars. Jay Holt, national wrestling champion, and "Doc" Northrup, Pan-American wrestling champion, will compete in one of the main offerings of the evening.

In addition, two members of the San Francisco Olympic Club wrestling team are scheduled to appear in the second match of the evening. The Olympic Clubbers, Jim Connor and Don Scrimminger, are both

Leonard, Horn Welcome New S. F. State Students

Registration Day opens the door to a whole new world of experiences for you. Today the dream of going to college becomes a reality. Many wonderful and exciting things are waiting for you—new friends, activities and learning experiences. All of these are important because they will affect you all your life.

The faculty and students join me in this word of welcome to you. We all stand ready to make the years ahead both profitable and enjoyable.

Just keep in mind that we can't do the job without your help and co-operation. Getting along in college is a two-way affair. Make that extra effort in the development of your study program. We want to hear about your problems. Help us to know you.

This splendid new campus offers a storehouse of facilities and resources. Use them well, and above all, be happy with us.

J. PAUL LEONARD,
President.

Congratulations and welcome to incoming freshmen and transfer students to State college. You have hurdled the new and tougher entrance requirements and are now part of the student family at this modern educational institution. I want you to feel at home here—to feel that you belong to State, and that, in a sense, State belongs to you.

You have at your disposal the finest facilities that money can buy. But money alone, can not buy an education. What you earn here will be up to you more than anything else. You will have the benefit of the best instructors available and a general education program designed to mold you into the type of person who can live on the highest plane of intellectual life. Here, too, you will receive the specific training that will enable you to earn a livelihood.

Above and beyond the primary purpose of "going to college" is the benefit and fun you will have by participating in the many activities of the Associated Students. Join a club that appeals to your special interests. If you are an athlete, try for your block "S" on one of the many State teams. Whatever your interest, it is a good bet that there is something you can participate in. Dive in and have fun while you are learning.

BOB HORN,
President, ASSFSC.

Board of Directors To Hold Retreat

The second annual Board of Directors retreat will be held February 11, 12 and 13 at Forest Farms in Marin county.

The purpose of the retreat, according to ASSFSC President Bob Horn, is to discuss the larger and long range problems concerning the college in individual discussion groups. All students interested in participating in the discussions are invited to attend the retreat.

The cost of the week end will be $3.00, payable at the Business Office in Hut T-1.

Freshmen Sponsor Post-Game Dance On February 18

"Lullaby of Birdland," a dance sponsored by the Frosh Class, will be presented in the women's gym following the S. F. State-Humboldt State basketball game, 10 p. m. to 1 a. m., Friday, February 18.

In keeping with the theme of the dance, erected over the center of the gym will be a huge artificial cage filled with hundreds of paper birds. Decorations have been planned by Tom Saunders and Bill Zettler.

Featured band of the evening will be Jack Periera and his combo. According to Ed Sullivan, Frosh Class president, the group will aim to provide dancable music for everyone's enjoyment.

Dress for the dance will be sport. Tickets, which can be purchased at the door, are priced at 75 cents stag and $1.25 per couple.

The dance committee includes Eric Hoberg, floor committee; Francyne Gallo, Pat McCormick, Sandy Strickler, and Jan Sturgon, tickets and posters; and Bobbi Morrison, refreshments.

'Prince of Players' Is Praised For Script and Richard Burton

By ROBERT M. KLANG

There is something quite rare in one of Hollywood's most recent big screeners now playing at Bay Area theatres: the CinemaScope production "Prince of Players."

The film is a sketchy biography of the life of Edwin Booth, the well-known Nineteenth Century Shakespearean actor. The script is based on the book by Eleanor Ruggles and Richard Burton pays Edwin Booth.

Rare about this picture is that it does not make its bid for success through gigantic spectacle as do so many of the new-process films which have been given the public in recent months. Any success "Prince of Players" may be enjoying in its current runs can only be attributed to Moss Hart's script and the execution of the lines therein.

BOOTH CONVINCING

At the outset of the film Booth, at the age of 10, played very convincingly by Christopher Cook, is getting his introduction to the stage by accompanying his father, Junius Brutus Booth (Raymond Massey) on tours. The elder Booth commands quite an audience as a Shakespearean player but because of age, drinking and the Booth "Madness" it is not too many years before Edwin, by now a young man, is called upon to play the lead in his father's last scheduled performance.

After winning out in a heated competitive situation with his brother, John Wilkes Booth, who later falls in with a group of Southern rebels and eventually commits that crime which brought infamy to the Booth family: the assassination of President Lincoln, and after overcoming serious psychological problems in connection with his romance with Mary Devlin, played a little weakly by Maggie MacNamera, Edwin gradually builds a great reputation and hits his high mark on the London stage as Hamlet.

SHAKESPEARE IN FILM

There is quite a bit of Shakespeare in the film and much of it is quite good. Burton takes top honors here. His portrayal of Richard in the last act of "Richard III" is fairly shattering and in scenes from "Hamlet" his is about as good.

If there is anything we didn't particularly appreciate in the show it is the over abundance of sentimentality. Emphasis in this direction should have been handled a little more discreetly for the audience's emotional response to these many "touches of sadness' soon deadens and the story, in places, becomes a little childish.

In connection with the fanatic John Wilkes Booth we are confronted with some obscurantism. Unable to discern adequately the motives behind John Wilkes' rebellious ways, we are left wondering exactly what happens, beside the jailing of John Brown and the assassination of Lincoln. (Incidentally, Lincoln is shot very convincingly and very dramaticaly in the assassination scene.)

GOOD COLOR PROCESS

We might mention that the color process used is very effective: De Luxe, they call it. We have not very often seen color which so closely resembles the actual.

Even with the few outlined difficulties in this CinemaScope production, "Prince of Players" is digestible entertainment. Comparing it with other recent films, it is a rarity.

Christ Scientists Meet

The Christian Science Organization at SFSC holds Tuesday evening meetings at 7:45 at 9th Church of Christ, Scientist, in the Sunday School Room, 175 Junipero Serra boulevard. All those interested in attending are welcome.

Burk School Receives Award For Architecture

The design for the proposed Frederic Burk Elementary School at Font boulevard and Tapia drive has won an award citation in the education category of the second annual Design Awards Program sponsored by a national architecture magazine.

The award was presented to John Lyon Reid and Partners, architects of San Francisco, by Thomas H. Creighton, editor of the magazine, at an awards banquet on January 14.

The professional jury selecting the award-winning design praised Reid's design for "the outdoor courtyards, the fine scale of the building, and its ingenious construction system."

The school will be adjacent to San Francisco State college and will serve as a laboratory for student teachers.

Poetry Workshop Offered Nights

A workshop in poetry writing will be offered as an extension course for one unit of credit. Students interested in an "unacademic" approach to the problems of writing poetry are invited to enroll.

Classes will be held once a week on Wednesday evenings, beginning February 16, at 7:30 o'clock in Room 104 in the Arts and Industries building.

Leaders of the group this semester will be Norman Macleod and Mark Linenthal. Student poetry will be the material of the course.

Members of this class will automatically become members of the Poetry Center. The spring program for the center will include readings by Allen Tate, Karl Shapiro, and William Carlos Williams. Also on the agenda will be monthly programs of readings by local poets.

The Creative Arts

By ROBERT M. KLANG

Students and faculty members can and, we think, should become very selfish about two things that exist on the S. F. State campus: Our Symphony Orchestra and Symphonic Band.

During the last few years S. F. S. C. people have really heard the music of these two ensembles only during their semi-annual formal concerts. The reasons for this are: (1) the Symphonic Band has devoted most of its time to playing concerts at schools other than our own; and (2) the Symphony Orchestra has just not been giving many performances.

WILL PLAY MORE

It was brought to our attention toward the end of last semester, however, that these two organizations are now willing to give the student body and faculty much more of their music than is offered during the well-spaced formal concerts.

This music would be heard in the form of regularly scheduled pop concerts given sometime near the noon hour. Students would be able to bring and eat their lunches while listening to some of the lighter programmatic compositions and some of the best Broadway tunes. (This indeed would be an enjoyable way to spend the early afternoon lunch break!)

'EXPLOIT' STUDENTS

And now we come to the notion of being selfish. How successful these pop concerts would be or, more correctly, whether they can actually take place depends on how badly we, the potential audience, want the orchestra and the band to play for us. And we can make them play for us. We can "exploit" these student musicians.

Through personal comments —especially concerning desirable times for the concerts— sent in care of the writer to the Golden Gater office, and through out attendance at the programs when and if they start, we can be certain the Symphony Orchestra will perform a little more, and we can be sure the Symphonic Band will spend a little more time on this campus.

IRC Elects New Spring Officers

Revising their usual election procedure, the International Relations Club nominated and elected its officers for the spring semester at a January 14 meeting.

Previously the IRC had held its nominations and elections a week apart, but operating under rules specially approved by the ASSFSC Board of Directors, the group brought its election procedure in line with that practiced by other campus organizations, according to newly elected student adviser Sami Judah.

Officers for the spring semester are: Mahmoud Redjaian, president; Luisa Ezquerro, vice president; Marilyn Goodwin, recording secretary; Rosie Guasco and Helen Simmons, corresponding secretaries; Etty Manuck, treasurer; and Sami Judah, student adviser.

Hemophiliac Needs Additional Donations

By JOYCE LOEW

The blood donated by students to Jim Garner, San Francisco State college sophomore and hemophilia victim, helped but Jim needs much more than those donations in order to get back to a normal life.

Before Jim can use the blood donated by the students, it must be processed; processing costs $8.50 per pint. Jim needs professional donors, people over 21 years of age, whose pints of blood can work off the charge of $8.50 per unit of plasma, the special low fee to Jim for processing and administering his daily requirement.

NO CHARGE

Until last September no charge was levied by the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank and the Stanford-Lane Hospital for processing and administering Jim Garners' daily plasma injection.

Both agencies have now had to levy a charge, and because Jim is being used as a research subject in discovering a cure for hemophilia, this charge has been lowered to a minimum. This means that Jim has had to go into debt $8.50 per day. His account is over $1000 in arrears at the present time.

HE WON'T QUIT

Jim Garner has shown that he is a phenomenon because he is not "beat down" by a disease which characteristically defeats its victims emotionally. He is now being used by Dr. Spate of Stanford Hospital as a research subject in trying to find the material which can be injected to prevent the fatal hemorrhaging from even the slightest break in the blood vessels.

COUNCIL DIRECTS

Dr. Gertrude Luehning, chairman of the Student-Faculty Health and Safety Council at San Francisco State college is directing the council's present drive to help Jim meet the needs for what can truly be called "blood money."

The step-by-step procedure given below must be followed exactly or the "professional donor" blood will not have the full $25-per-pint value.

1—Go to or phone Mrs. Fenton in the business office of Stanford-Lane Hospital (Clay and Webster streets — WEst 1-8000) and, by so stating, become established as a "professional donor."

2—Tell Mrs. Fenton the date and time wanted to donate blood at the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank, and an appointment will be made. The bank is open Monday from 10 a. m. to 5:15 p. m., and Tuesday through Friday from 12 noon to 5:15 p. m.

3—Go to the Stanford-Lane business office to pick up the donor's slip.

4—At the specified time, go to the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank, 2180 Washington street near Laguna, with the donor's slip and legal identification establishing age.

5—After giving the blood donation, return the donor's slip to the Stanford-Lane office in person. Twenty-five dollars will then be paid in full and will in turn be given back as a gift to James Garners' account. This amount is deductible on income tax.

CLUBS MUST FILE FOR ON-CAMPUS STATUS

All organizations or clubs that wish to be recognized on campus next semester must file an Official Organization Card. Without these on file, no club or organization will receive college recognition or support.

Cards may be obtained in the Administration Building, Room 168. The spring semester officers and any other changes in clubs must be stated on the card.

These cards are to be filed in Room 168 of the Administration Building by the beginning of the spring semester.

Training Center For Palsied Open

A new school for the treatment and education of cerebral palsied children recently opened at Lake Merced boulevard and Winston drive in the west end of SFSC campus.

This is one of two residential schools operated by the California State Department of Education for cerebral palised children between the ages of three and 21.

TRAINING PROVIDED

Here they may have close observation, training, intensive medical treatment, and special training for the necessary period of time. The other school is located in Los Angeles.

The Northern California school is housed in a new two-story building. On the first floor are four classrooms, three

Faculty Members Display Own Art Work in Exhibit

Art work by members of the San Francisco State college art faculty will be exhibited in Room 220, AI building, during the week of February 21-25.

To be displayed are oil paintings, water colors, pen and ink drawings, wood and ceramic sculpture, and photographs. The exhibition is sponsored by the S. F. State Art Club.

Particular works will include an abstract landscape and non-objective expression by Alexander Nepote; a depiction of the Redwoods done entirely in yellow, turquoise blue, and magenta water colors by Waldemar Johansen; and a sanguine life drawing by John Gutmann.

A piece of ceramic sculpture done with a high-temperature reduction iron glaze by John Magnani will be complemented by a series of photographs by Robert Hall which shows the development of the sculpture form through its various stages. William Shelley will present a unique paper sculpture of wood sheeting depicting a ram.

The contribution of Nelson Wu, a calligraphy exhibit, was created by using a Chinese brush and ink on paper. Woven by Margery Livingston, a casement made of linen, spun silk, and mohair will also be on display. Mayo Bryce has created two lithographs, "Cape Cod" and "Scene in Automat," as well as a sensitive portrait sculpture.

Other art faculty members who will exhibit works include Dale Diamond, Evelyn Erickson and Seymour Locks.—S. C.

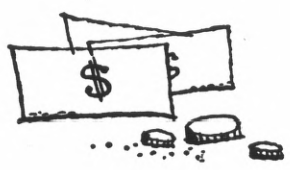
It's so crisp, so green, so useful.

The truth is out! We're not in business for our health. We're trying to fleece you. That's why we charge so much. For instance:

$1 for Phoenix Dacron socks

$3.95 for genuine Arrow white shirts

$13.45 for 100% wool flannel slacks tailored to perfection



$50 for an all-wool charcoal flannel suit that won't last over 10 years.

What! You say that's not expensive?

Awards Presented at Publication Banquet

Chuck Mendoza was named "Outstanding Journalist" and four other Golden Gater staff members were honored as the Board of Publications held its semi-annual banquet, January 28. Mendoza was also re-appointed as news editor of the Golden Gater, a position he held during the fall semester.

In addition to Mendoza's reappointment other appointments include Bob Klang, who will remain as feature editor, and Hank Cunningham (who last semester held the position as assistant sports editor), to sports editor.

Allene Knight and Bobbie Storck were named assistant news editor and assistant sports editor, respectively. Both of the new assistant editors were reporters the past semester.

Other awards for outstanding work during the fall semester were presented to Bob Klang, for his column on the KEAR strike; to LeRoy Pacini, for his sports article on the prospects for the football team; to Kathy Shaffer, for her news story concerning revisions of the Board of Publications By-Laws; and to Keith Pinckney, for his editorial on Dedication.

Editor Keith Pinckney and Managing Editor Jay Taggart kept their jobs, entering their second semester in the first year of the new plan whereby the two top editors of the Golden Gater are appointed for the period of one year with the remainder of the staff positions subject to petition at the beginning of each term.

Present at the banquet were members of the staff of the Golden Gater and other interested parties, including Luisa Hepper, former chairman of the Board of Publications; Mr. Leo Young, advisor to the Golden Gater, and Mrs. Young; Dr. Stuart Loomis, former advisor to National Journalism Fraternity Alpha Phi Gamma; Jack Healy, administrator of student affairs; Bill Spry, business manager of the Associated Students; Bert Phillips, former ASSFSC president, and Ed Hosack, former business manager of the Golden Gater.

NIGHT COURSES OPEN

S.F. States' Business Division is presenting 15 evening courses this semester.

Included in subjects being offered are: Work Experience Seminars; Textiles Manufacturing and Merchandising; Investments; Life, Group and Social Insurance.

Knowland Talks At SWAC Meet

Dr. Donald Castleberry, chairman of the Social Science Division at S. F. State, will be the speaker at the sixth annual Student World Affairs Conference at Asilomar, March 4-6.

Keynote speaker for the conference will be Senator William Knowland, Senate minority leader.

Any students who wish to attend are asked to contact Mahmoud Redjaian, president of IRC, or Sami Judah. The price, including room and board, is $15.50.

SORORITY HONORS NEW MEMBERS

Sigma Delta Gamma sorority honored its new pledges and their dates at a formal Pledge Banquet, February 5. Pledges feted at the dinner were: Barbara Hansen, Sandy Koch, Toni Petty, Joanna Van Hille and Ginny Unland.

Presiding at the affair were spring semester officers: Barbara Ruggiero, president; Joan Petersen, vice president; Pat Spike, secretary; Carol Kenny, corresponding secretary; Carol Petersen, historian; Pat Coutts, treasurer; Joie Castelein, sergeant-at-arms; Sally Jordan, pledge mistress, and Toni Petty publicity chairman.

Boiler Room Letters

Engagement Ring Lost

An Open Letter to
My Fellow Students:

On Friday, January 21, 1955, while using the mimeograph room in the Education Building, I lost my engagement ring. I took it off to wash my hands and left in on the counter. When I returned, it was gone. Sure, you might say I deserve to lose it for being careless, but everyone makes mistakes. This ring means much more to me than its monetary value, and I would appreciate it more than words can express if anyone can give me any informatiton regarding it.

Sincerely,
ELYNORE LANGRIDGE,
557 Miller Avenue,
South San Francisco.

Davis Answers Pappas

Editor—While news of the recent resignation of the vice president of the ASSFSC did not plunge me into funereal gloom; I do regret that she chose to pervert her final, and perhaps finest official gesture with a wild, unintelligent thrust against myself and those students with whom I have some ideas in common.

In the course of my "somewhat hysterical and misdirected" attack, I have advocated, and shall continue to advocate, editorial freedom and maturity in the campus press, an equitable student body budget, and a program of activities which more adequately reflects the aims and purposes of San Francisco State College.

Any students who would like to see these aspects of my program implemented can only resent our ex-vice president's unfortunate use of the word "disciple." None of us suffer from a messianic complex, nor from the delusions implied in her fear that her resignation will be grossly misinterpreted.

STEPHEN T. DAVIS.

State Hoopsters Gain 3-1 Record

By LEROY PACINI, Golden Gater Sports Writer

State's basketballers continued their winning ways and held on to a tie for the top spot with Chico State in Far Western Conference standings during the final examination and vacation period, by taking two conference tilts and splitting two games against independent competition.

At the home court on January 14, the Gators whipped Sacramento, 74-72, in one of the most exciting games seen on the home court this season.

GAME TELEVISED

Playing before the television cameras of station KSAN, both teams put on an interesting battle. Sacramento was rarely in the lead but put continual pressure on the Staters right on down to the wire. Bob Liebe led the Gators with 29 points. J. D. Masters and John Gray of Sacramento were both hot with 26 points each.

ANOTHER TIGHT GAME

The following night, Coach Dan Farmer's crew traveled to the capital city to engage the Hornets and once again played a tight one, winning 57-54.

Forward Hank Fort, with 19 markers, and Center Bob Leibe with 16 points, were the Gator sparks. John Gray, the masterful Hornet forward, did his best to keep his team in the running with a sparkling 29-point performance.

DOWN FLYERS

January 27 found the Gators traveling to Moffett Field to meet the Flyers, and once again State came through with an easy 83-72 victory.

Bob Leibe and Hank Fort again showed well, hitting for 22 and 20 points, respectively. Gator forward Ernie Browning, with a fine floor game and 14 points, appeared to break out of his slump. "Ike" Williams of the Flyers hit for 27 counters.

STREAK BROKEN

State had their streak of 10 wins out of their last previous 11 games, and five straight, broken when they teamed against a hot St. Mary's Gael squad on January 31 at Moraga.

The peaceful surroundings of the St. Mary's campus were completely shaken with a scoring outburst by the Gaels which saw them eventually slap the Gators down with a 89-72 score.

FORT'S EFFORTS FUTILE

A 26-point performance by Hank Fort went for naught, as St. Mary's went into a quick commanding lead and never relinquished it. The free wheeling Fort connected with virtually every shot in the book to keep State in contention, but was unable to stop the dynamic little Weelo Sanchez who sparked the Gaels with 24 points and his general all-around play.

Golfers Sign Up Tuesday in Gym

Coach Guido de Ghetaldi, S. State's golf mentor, has scheduled a meeting for all persons interested in signing up for the inter-collegiate golf team this season.

Time for the gathering has been set for 1 p. m. on Tuesday, February 15, in Coach de Ghetaldi's office, located in the Physical Education Building.

Winners of the Far Western Conference last year, the Gator golf squad is greatly understaffed, at this point, for the 1955 season.

Bob Moniz, Monte Nevis and George Starn are the only returning members of the team that not only won the conference championship, but established a record breaking list of victories in doing so. This list consisted of 12 wins, one loss, and one tie. The loss and tie were both in matches against San Jose State college.

With six of the men on this team absent, either through graduation or entrance into the armed forces, positions on the current squad are now open to tryouts.

This year's opening match will find the Gators bucking the University of San Francisco Dons, March 22, at Sharp Park.

Gator Pugilists Lose in Benefit

The Gator boxing team dropped a match to the mighty San Jose State Tuesday, Feb. 1, 7½-½, in the fifth annual Sequoia Kiwanis benefit show at Redwood City.

The Spartans, always a national powerhouse, were just too much for the Gators to handle in one night. This, plus the fact that San Francisco lost the 139, 156, 165 and heavyweight divisions on forfeits, made for a rather bleak night among inexperienced Gator pugilists.

Only State's 147-pound Doug Whitley managed to stop a Spartan as he held Jim Knickerbocker to a draw. The featured bout of the night found San Jose's Al Julian, 125, score a TKO in 1:21 of the first round over Bill Fawcett, also a 125-pounder. Julian was awarded the Al Cofiori Memorial Trophy for his effort.

Leibe, Fort Lead Gators to Win

Rebounding from their disappointing defeat by St. Mary's Gaels, Gator basketballers defeated Cal Poly 76-67, at San Luis Obispo, February 3.

The game was a close one until the final 10 minutes of action, when Hank Fort, Bob Leibe and Garry Kenny broke loose with successive field goals, giving State a five-point lead. Prior to that outburst, the lead had changed hands 21 times. The half-time score was 29-26 in favor of the hosting Mustangs.

Bob Leibe and Hank Fort, with 27 and 33 points, respectively, led the Gator scoring attack. Garry Kenny, switched from his usual guard position to a forward slot, tanked 14 markers.

Although the Mustangs cavort in a different league, the Staters needed the victory to prove they could bounce back. Only once thus far this season have the Gators lost more than one game in a row.

That instance was on their second and third games of the season against strong opposition in San Jose State and Fresno State, when the Gators had yet to really jell.

Matmen Tackle TI There Tonight

The grapplers of San Francisco State will meet two service teams this week end.

Tonight they meet the Navy, when they travel to Treasure Island for the first match. In their previous match with the Bluejackets, the two teams battled to a 16-16 draw. However, according to Captain Bill Dorffi, State's chances are much better this time since Ed Tomasello, heavyweight, will be competing.

In the game tomorrow night the Gators will meet Alameda Naval Air Station at Alameda. Little information has been gathered as to what to expect so literally the Gator wrestlers will be going in with "no holds barred."

The matmen have started out with a weak season (largely due to vacation and little time for practice) by losing two with one draw.

The next home match will be February 22 here in State gymnasium.

NOTHING

(The Sum Total of This Column's Worth)

By HANK CUNNINGHAM

Twice each year the sports page of the Golden Gater sprouts a new column, under a new title and written by a "new" sports editor. Though no one knows why, an editor is not an editor unless he writes a column. It's in the book.

Some columns are interesting, some informative and some quite useless. All are usually lengthy. One of the most important aspects of the column is the title. A budding writer spends a great deal of time and thought in quest of a clever, but original moniker to head his words of wisdom.

Futile Search for Title

Usually this search is futile and the editor must be content with the "sports-something" title. Read almost any sports page and you will find a "sports-something" column. If it isn't SPORTS NOTES, SPORTS QUIPS or SPORTS SHOTS, it will be SPORTS VIEWS or SPORTS CORNER.

If this type of heading proves too nauseating, the editor may become creative. The result is usually a play on words or a catchy phrase as "FROM WHERE I SIT," "LOOKING THROUGH THE WRONG END OF A KNOT HOLE," or "SITTING IN THE BENCH WITH THE TERMITES." They are usually considered to be quite clever but unfortunately, when I "created" I wasn't feeling clever. I was feeling truthful. So much for the introduction to NOTHING.

Cagers Lose One Out of Five

While most of the students of this fair college were wandering aimlessly through a two-week vacation, the machinery of the Athletic Department continued to grind.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Dan Farmer the lads who carry the Purple and Gold to the basketball courts throughout the country, carried said colors five times. Only once did they lose. State's junior cagers continued their official schedule when they tangled with the S. F. Police Department no less. Tuesday they met San Jose State's Junior Varsity, though at this writing the results of these games are not known.

Full Season for Boxers, Matmen

February 5 found the Gator boxing team pitted against the University of Stanford in a struggle for supremacy of the "squared circle." As for the local matmen, they, too, have been active. In their initial match of the season they battled the wrestlers of Treasure Island to 16-to-16 draw. San Jose State dumped them in their second tilt, though the scores of the individual matches were reasonably close. There is room for improvement and since the season is brand new it is not unlikely that such improvement will be forthcoming.

In short, the sports scene has been bustling, and judging from the looks of things it is going to be a full season.

Applications for Foreign Service Due Next Month

The San Francisco State college placement office has announced that during the early days of March, representatives of the Department of State will be on the campus to consult with members of the faculty and students interested in the Foreign Service and the new opportunity for a career in the service.

All professional positions in the department and posts abroad will be filled by Foreign Service officers. All candidates for officer positions must take examinations to determine their eligibility. Simplification has been undertaken of the appointing and examining of the Foreign Service officer candidates, although the standards will not be lessened.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS

The placement office also announces that applications are now available for the Civil Service examination for playground directors. Both full and part-time positions in local recreation and playground centers are obtainable.

Applicants must be between 19 and 35 years of age. Educational requirements are:

1—Graduation from a recognized four-year university or college; or

2—Two years of college work in recreation or physical education; or

3—Two years of college and at least one year of paid experience.

Salaries for these positions are $2.00 per hour for part-time work, and $315 per month for temporary full-time work.

The last date for filing applications is February 18 at 5 p. m. Mailed applications must be postmarked not later than 5 p. m., February 18.

Variety Show Needs Talent

The Overseas Council and the IRC are jointly sponsoring an International Variety Show in the Little Theatre March 3 and 4.

The show will include singing, dancing, and entertainment "from all regions of the world."

Any overseas student who wishes to participate in the show should sign up in the Activities Room in the Ad Building on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 10 and 11. Tryouts will be held on Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 14 and 15.

Resignations Cause Elections

will be held Friday, February 18 at 4 p. m., in Hut T-1. Campaigning will begin Monday, February 21, and the election will be held in the foyer of the Redwood Room.

In the event of a tie, run-off elections will be held March 3 and 4.

The vacancies occurred in student body government when Alice Pappas resigned because of the press of time in conflict with her studies and when Karl Knuth withdrew from college due to exhaustion and overwork.

FORMER MR. AMERICAS

Jimmy Payne and Elias Rodrigues, both former professional Mr. Americas will also appear along with Paul Magistretti, University of California weightlifting champion, and John B. Gardner and the Olympic Club gymnastic team.

Other professional and S. F. State athletes will appear on the program which will feature demonstrations in judo, boxing, and hand balancing as well as the many champions now scheduled.

Admission to the show will be 75 cents.

Players' Club to Present 'Profiles'

"Profiles," the first dramatic offering of the spring semester, will be presented by the Players' Club in the Little Theatre on Feb. 18 and 19 at 8:30 p. m.

Featured in "Profiles" will be works of Thornton Wilder, William Shakespeare, Ogden Nash, Jean Cocteau, Anton Chekhov, Dorothy Parker. T. S. Eliot, Christopher Fry, Oscar Wilde, and Thomas Wolfe.

Presented upon a stage void of scenery, make-up, costume and movement, "Profiles" places total emphasis upon the spoken word. What the author has to say is the important thing. The performer who utters these words is secondary. The theme and significance of "Profiles" are nine different interpretations of the value, frailities, wholesomeness, and intrigue of life itself.

was made by Karl Knuth, activities commissioner.

The banquet climaxed a semester of extensive and successful programming for Associated Students, according to Knuth.

Frosh, Sponsors Attend 'Night of Fun' Activities

Approximately 200 entering freshmen participated in the second "Night of Fun" presented by the ASSFSC, Tuesday evening, February 8. Joining the group were 100 S. F. State students who acted as sponsors to orient the freshmen with State campus life.

The group met in the Student Union, where they were divided into six groups. Following dinner, the group participated in community singing, under the direction of Ted Tyson, master of ceremonies.

PATSY SPEER ENTERTAINS

Later in the evening an entertainment program was presented in the main auditorium of the Creative Arts Buidling. On the program were several numbers by the Faculty Quartet and the ROTC Singing Cadets, and a baton twirling act by Patsy Speer. The last item on the program was the singing of the school hymn by the entire group.

Climaxing the evening's program was a dance, featuring the music of Bob Sumners and his band.

GARCIA, CHAIRMAN

Chairman of the "Night of Fun" was Ruben Garcia. Assisting were: Carol Hunter and Ron Smith, entertainment committee heads; Mary Cummings and Marilyn Lehew, food committee; John Klobucar and Shirley Jacobsen, correspondence committee; Jan Claussen and Dorothy Couch, dance committee; and Bob Hart, floor committee.

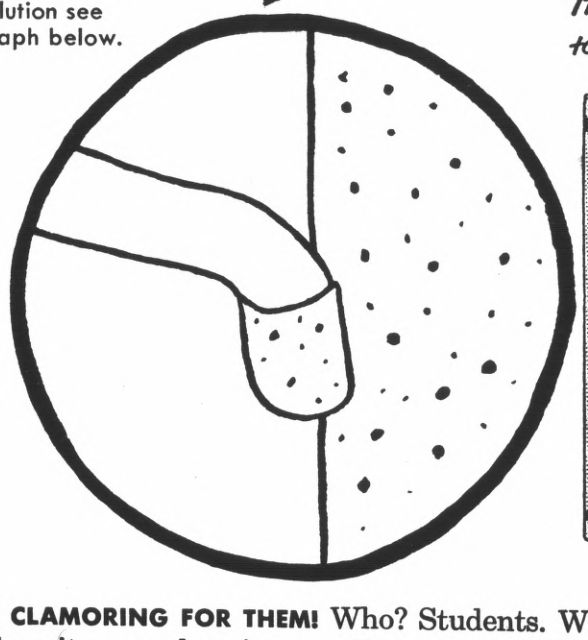
WHAT'S THIS?
For solution see paragraph below.



THEY'RE CLAMORING FOR THEM! Who? Students. What? Luckies. Coast to coast, dormitory to dormitory, college smokers prefer Luckies to all other brands, according to the greatest up-to-datest college survey. Again, the No. 1 reason for Luckies' wide lead: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. So enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike. But don't be like the man in the Droodle above, titled: Pickpocket acquiring Luckies. Make sure you have plenty of your own. Buy Luckies by the carton.

STUDENTS! EARN $25!

Lucky Droodles* are pouring in! Where are yours? We pay $25 for all we use, and for many we don't use. So send every original Droodle in your noodle, with its descriptive title, to Lucky Droodle, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.
